New York Sun. As far as betting may be regarded as an indication of the direction of public feeling relative to the presidential contest, the prospects are favorable to the election of Hancock and English. A well-known citizen who has opportunities for knowing what is going on among sporting men said vesterday that bets are freely made of $1,000 to $800 that Hancock and English will be elected. There are many bets of $1,000 to $750 that the Democrats will carry Indiana.

Col. James Mooney, of the Twenty-fourth ward, has bet $1,000 even, and also $500 to $400 that Gen. Hancock will be Col. Mooney has also bet $300 eyen that the Democrats will carry Indiana. He has also bet $70 to $100 twice Gen. Hancock will carry Ohio. Ed. Gilmore, of Niblo's theatre, has bet about $10,000 that Gen. Garfield will be elected. This bet was made several weeks ago. For the last two weeks Mr. Gilmore has been trying in vain to hedge.

S. Foster Dewey bet $10,000 even that Garfield will be elected president. He now wants to hedge but he cannot find a vic-Ed. Kearney has bet over $20,000 even on Gen. Hancock, and he is willing to bet any amount from $50,000 to $100,000 even in the same way. He finds it impossible to obtain takers. Thomas Johnson, the pool seller, stands ready to bet $1,000 to $800 that General Hancock will be elected. Col. Joe Crocheron of the Brower house wants to bet $1,000, or any part of it, even, that Gen. Hancock will be elected presi-Charles W. Griswold, formerly of Fifth Avenue hotel, bet about $3,000, several weeks ago, on Gen. Garfield. When several parties offered to accept further simi-liar bets from him, he said he would bet $1,000 to $5,000 that Gen. Garfield would

Sol. Sayles has bet a large amount on Gen. Hancock, and he wants to get some more bets of the same kind. He can be found at the Astor house.

Edward Toohill, of Brooklyn, formerly a Republcan harbor master, has come out boldly for Hancock. He stands ready to bet $1,000 to $750 that the Democrats will carry Indiana, and $1,000 to $750 that Hancock's popular vote in the United States will be greater by 150,000 than Mr. Tilden's was.

in that stronghold of the Camerons. He could not get bets. He says there has been a revolution in that part of Pennsylvania. The Republicans are disheartened. The cry there is that Hancock saved the state, at Gettysburg, from being overrun by Gen. Lee's army, and that the pres idency is his by right. Pennsylvania, this gentleman predicts, will roll up a majority for Hancock.
